A Ralph Dunlap Parent Education Night

- Thursday, November 29th at 6:30pm
- Ralph Dunlap Multi-purpose Room

Meet Jon Pearson; a former classroom teacher, he combines thirty years of brain research and education experience with a passion for fostering self-motivated, life-long learners. Learn how to help your child(ren) learn faster and retain information longer. See how to turn drawing into a powerful tool to motivate reading, writing, reading, and self-confidence. Jon believes that the key to classroom management is student engagement. The more engaged students are, the more inspired they'll be, and the fewer behavior problems they'll have.

Fall Festival Fun Kicked Off Thanksgiving Holiday

Our recent Fall Festival & Silent Auction was very well attended and enjoyed by Dunlap and other community families. We appreciate all of our families who donated cakes for the Cake Walk, candy for prizes, and helped out in other ways. We also truly appreciate the student volunteers who helped out from St. Joseph HS, Orcutt Academy HS, and Righetti HS.

A special thanks go to several individuals who helped coordinate the event: Kerri Vincent and Allison Smith (volunteer coordination); Suzanne Stevens (vendors); Sherry Zimmer (Cake Walk); Dale Hiramatsu (games); many parents who helped on the night of the festival in many different ways; our fantastic custodians Lee and Cindy for helping to haul, sort, set up, and/or clean up the classroom games; and last, but certainly not least, the lead Chairperson Elisabeth Weidner — who brought her ideas, made the arrangements, and made this fabulous night at Dunlap possible!

The PTA also wishes to thank these awesome vendors: Cubanissimo, Kona Shave Ice, Pizza Hut, La Dulce Vida; Ah Sir Bounce-a-Lot inflatables; DJ Matt Buentempo; Wackypartypics Photo Booth; Airbrush Me Silly face painting; and PCPA performer/balloon twister, Allison Feist.

Thank you also to Doc Burnstein's for donating secret ingredient coins as prizes; Pepsi for donating drinks for our volunteers; Waste Management for donating trash and recycling bins; and United Rentals for the use of their lighting units.

Silent Auction Wrap Up

The PTA's recent Silent Auction was a tremendous success! We sincerely thank the parents, teachers, and room parents that so generously donated to the classroom baskets. A special thank you to the classes that donated multiple baskets! All of the baskets and donations we received defied expectations. Thank you!

Numerous businesses and pharmacies from San Luis Obispo to Santa Barbara donated gift certificates, performance tickets, experience packages, hotel stays, and much more. Thank you for your generosity and community spirit!

To the parents that so generously donated their time to assist with the setup and take down of the event and those that volunteered their time during the bidding— we appreciate you taking time out of your day and evening to make the event a true success.

The auction brought in over $3,500! This will help Dunlap PTA continue its commitment to bringing a variety of enrichment programs and assemblies to our school, as well as allow us to continue to support our school, library and classrooms in other ways.

The PTA wishes to especially thank Brittany Newton, Silent Auction Chairperson, for helping us bring the Silent Auction back to the Fall Festival this year. Your time and dedication to the coordination of this event was very much appreciated.
